

Ronald Cormier

Born and raised in Saint-Antoine, N.B.

In 1966, Mr. Cormier began a career with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police that lasted for more than 33 years.

After recruit training in Regina, Saskatchewan he was assigned to the province of Québec. His early years were spent doing detachment work. Mr. Cormier has a long experience as investigator and team leader. As a senior member of the drug and commercial crime sections, he lead major investigations in Canada, the U.S, and abroad. Mr. Cormier was also a supervisor and unit commander to specialized operation sections in Montréal.

Upon his retirement, Mr. Cormier returned to his roots in Saint-Antoine where he served as mayor for two terms. He served for over sixteen years in municipal politics.

Mr. Cormier is the proud owner of several woodlots and spends considerable time in its management and selective cutting.

On December 5, 2012, Mr. Cormier was appointed as member of the New Brunswick Police Commission for a term of three years. In April 2014, Mr. Cormier was appointed acting Vice-chair of the Commission and in December 2015 he was appointed Chair. His vast policing experience will be a great asset to the work of the Commission.
