

ROBERT (BOB) ECKSTEIN

Bob Eckstein resides with his family in New Maryland.

Mr. Eckstein holds a Bachelor of Arts (Sociology 1982) and Bachelor of Social Work (1989) from St. Thomas University and a Masters' of Social Work (1992) from Carleton University in Ottawa.

Mr. Eckstein worked for approximately 35 years in the Provincial Public Service, with over 20 years of service in Community and Correction Services, as a Correctional Officer and youth counselor, social worker, Youth Criminal Justice Act implementation manager, and youth justice senior policy and program adviser. For 8 years he was a Director in the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development as lead for the Integrated Service Delivery program for youth with emotional behavioural and mental health issues. In 2017 he was awarded the Donald D. Dennison Award for Public Administration in New Brunswick.

He was a sessional Instructor in the Criminology program at St. Thomas University.

Mr. Eckstein was recently appointed as a fulltime Assistant Professor in the Social Work program at St. Thomas University.